PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 27, 2009

Plattsburgh, N.Y. Clinton County District Attorney Andrew J. Wylie announced today that Gregory Holland pleads guilty on the eve of trial

Gregory Holland, d/o/b 8/29/78, plead guilty to Rape in the First Degree, a class B violent felony. Holland was charged by indictment with entering the apartment of a Plattsburgh State student without permission and forcibly raping her in her bedroom in the City of Plattsburgh in the early morning hours of September 12, 2008. The plea was entered this afternoon, just days before the trial, which was scheduled to commence on May 30, 2009 before the Honorable Patrick R. McGill. Holland plead to the top count of the three count indictment and allocuted fully to the conduct alleged therein. The defendant is scheduled to be sentenced on June 5, 2009 to fifteen years in state prison with five years post release supervision as a second violent felony offender.
