DATE AND TIME OF ARREST: 02/22/2015 2:48am

NARRATIVE: On February 22, 2015, at about 2:32am, Sheriff's Deputies observed an suspicious vehicle with its lights on and engine running parked in the driving lane on Oneil Road in the Town of Beekmantown. Deputies initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle and subsequently determined the operator and sole occupant, Nicholas J. Woodley of West Chazy, to have been operating the vehicle while in an intoxicated condition.

DISPOSITION: Woodley was transported to the Sheriff's Office for processing. Testing revealed his Blood Alcohol Content to be in excess of .18%. A records check also revealed Woodley to have a conviction for Driving While Intoxicated in the previous ten years. Accordingly, Deputies charged Woodley with felony Driving While Intoxicated. He was issued appearance tickets and released. He is set to appear in Town of Beekmantown Court in March to face the allegations.
