FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On Tuesday February 23, 2010 the Clinton County Sheriff's Office charged an inmate at the Clinton County jail for allegedly assaulting a Corrections Officer.

24-year-old Malcolm White was taken into custody by deputies at the Clinton County Jail at around 3:45p.m. on Tuesday - following a report that White allegedly bit a jail Corrections Officer.

The officer was taken to CVPH Medical Center where he was treated and released.

White was charged with one felony count of second degree assault with intent to cause physical injury to another person. He was arraigned in Plattsburgh Town court and sent back to the Clinton County Jail without bail.

At the time of the incident White was being held at the jail on charges of criminal sale of a controlled substance.

White is set to re-appear in Plattsburgh Town court today to face the allegations.
