

PRESS RELEASE

Justin Reyell

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A convicted rapist is facing multiple felony charges for allegedly providing false information on his sex offender registration.

Deputies from the Clinton County Sheriff's Office arrested 23-year-old Justin Reyell just before 4:00p.m., yesterday.

Reyell, who was convicted of 3rd degree rape in 2006, is accused of intentionally giving the wrong address to the sex offender registry.

Deputies charged Reyell with forgery and failure to properly register as a sex offender.

Reyell was arraigned in Plattsburgh Town Court and sent to the Clinton County Jail on $350 cash bail which he later posted. He will reappear at a later date to face the charges.
