Upon investigation by Deputies at the scene, it was determined that the minivan that Manor was operating northbound on Route 22, exited the east shoulder of the roadway, struck an embankment and came to rest after striking the side of a barn. Further investigation alleges that Manor was operating the vehicle while impaired by drugs. The occupants of the vehicle were evaluated by UVM CVPH EMS and determined to be uninjured. The Sheriff's Office was assisted by the New York State Police, West Chazy Fire Department and Beekmantown Fire Department.

DISPOSITION: Manor was transported to the Sheriff's Office where she was processed for the above listed charges. She was released on appearance tickets and is scheduled to appear in the Chazy Town Court at a later date.
