NARRATIVE: On the above date, Clinton County 911 advised of a two car property damage motor vehicle crash in the area of 1785 Military Turnpike, Plattsburgh. The Clinton County Sheriff's Office responded to the scene following the report. Upon arrival, it was determined that one motor vehicle, a 2012 Nissan Altima operated by Tyler Whitehurst, 21, had exited the east side of the Military Turnpike, just north of the Tom Miller Rd. The vehicle rolled over and continued by hitting a utility pole before coming to rest on its roof. No injuries were sustained. The investigation is still ongoing by the Clinton County Sheriff's Office. Deputies were assisted by the Morrisonville Fire Department and at the time of this press release, Military Turnpike from the intersection of Tom Miller Rd. to the Wallace Hill Rd. is still closed for repair of the utility pole.
