NARRATIVE On October 14, 2019, at approximately 7:33 p.m. Clinton County Sheriff's Deputies responded to northbound Interstate 87 in the Town of Chazy for a reported personal injury motor vehicle accident. Investigation on scene determined that a vehicle in the passing lane lost control when an animal was in the roadway. This vehicle then struck another motor vehicle and both vehicles involved then left the roadway. The first vehicle was then inverted and was on its roof upon deputies arrival.

DISPOSITION:

Kudlip and Basmatie were assessed on scene and transported to CVPH Medical Center by EMS with complaints of pain in their chest and head. The sheriff's Office was assisted on scene by New York State Police, Chazy Fire Department and CVPH EMS. No parties were ticketed as a result of the accident.
