

PRESS RELEASE

Daniel Labarge Jr.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A local man is facing felony charges of grand larceny stemming from accusations he allegedly stole a piece of farm equipment.

Daniel Labarge Jr., 30, of Saranac, was arrested yesterday at his home by deputies from the Clinton County Sheriff's Office just before 4:00p.m.

Labarge is accused of stealing a hay bailer worth an estimated $4,000 from one of his neighbors.

Deputies charged Labarge with 4th degree grand larceny and criminal possession of stolen property.

Labarge will appear in Saranac Town Court at a later date to face the charges.
