

PRESS RELEASE

John E. Snyder Jr.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For the second time in less than a week, a registered level 1 sex offender is arrested for failing to report his address to authorities.

John E. Snyder Jr. was first arrested on Sunday by Essex County Sheriff's Office deputies.

Snyder allegedly moved into a residence in Chesterfield last August but failed to notify Essex County authorities within 10 days of his change of address.

Snyder was arraigned in Chesterfield Town Court and sent to the Essex County Jail on $1,000 cash bail or $2,000 bond.

Before his release from the Essex County Jail on Wednesday, Snyder was arrested by Clinton County Sheriff's Office deputies acting on an arrest warrant.

Snyder is accused of failing to notify authorities in Clinton County of his move to the Essex County address last August.

Snyder was arraigned in Plattsburgh Town Court and sent to the Clinton County Jail on $2,500 cash bail which he later posted. He is expected to appear in court at a later date to face the charges.
